Location

The property is situated within a modern development on Ferry Lane, Rainham (RM13). The property benefits from excellent transport links, positioned just off the A13, providing fast access to Central London, Docklands, the M25 (Junction 30/31), and wider motorway network. Rainham mainline station is within close proximity, offering regular services into London Fenchurch Street, while multiple bus routes connect the area with surrounding towns and business hubs. Its strategic position within one of East London's most accessible logistics and industrial corridors makes it an ideal base for occupiers seeking connectivity to London, the Southeast, and national distribution routes.

Please note all times and distances given are approximate only.
