Location

Felstead Road is located in the heart of Hackney Wick, one of East London's most vibrant neighbourhoods, having benefited from significant regeneration in recent years. It is home to a mix of independent cafés and restaurants, canalside bars, live music venues, shops, creative studios, and more, giving the area a unique community feel and cultural scene.

Hackney Wick is positioned on the River Lea, situated between Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and Victoria Park, offering routes for walking and cycling, with access to ample green spaces.

The property is located 0.2 miles from Hackney Wick station (Mildmay line), providing direct links to Stratford, Highbury & Islington, and the wider London transport network. Stratford International and Stratford station are also easily accessible, offering Underground, DLR, and national rail services. The area is well served by buses.

Please note all distances given are approximate only.
